

WORKSHOP PRICE LIST

Setups & Restrings:

Excluding the price of a new set of strings, generally a Restring is £15 and Setups are £30 albeit there is the odd exception. If you already have your own strings then we will fit these, otherwise we have a wide range in store for you to choose from. The * in the String column below indicates the average price of a set of strings for each instrument and gives an indication as to what the overall job will cost.

If you are experiencing dead spots when fretting your instrument, if it is choking or if the strings are just miles away from the fingerboard, it is likely a Setup will go a long way towards addressing these issues. Some guitars are beyond redemption, but we can get most guitars back to a really comfortable playing action.

Other Guitar Work:

All other work is quoted on a time and materials basis but in any one week we will replace nuts, input sockets, pickups, machine heads, bridges, frets and saddles as well as fixing the occasional broken neck.

Amplifiers:

We outsource this to an excellent offsite engineer. Over the last 3 years 80% of amp repairs have cost the end user between £90 and £130. Some are a little more (usually valve related) and some a little less (operator error!).
